

XIII International Law Competition "Youth for Peace"
September 24-28, 2018 Minsk, Belarus

XIII International Law Competition "Youth for Peace"

International Law Competition "Youth for Peace" is an annual contest for students from different countries. The participants are expected to demonstrate excellent knowledge of international humanitarian law, international public law and human rights law, as well as ability to adapt to the changing environment. The Competition provides students with an opportunity to enrich and extend their knowledge in the sphere of international humanitarian law through participation in the simulated armed conflict. In previous eleven years the Competition has seen student teams from more than 35 countries around the world.

Participation in the Competition

Working language of the Competition is English. Participating team should consist of two-three students (2-3) under the age of 35 who have not participated in the Competition before. Participation of mixed teams (students from different universities) is allowed. Selection of the teams-participants of the Competition is carried out by the Organizing Committee (OC) based on the results of the Preliminary Round. Applications for participation in the Competition and completed task for the Preliminary Round should be sent to the OC via e-mail at international@mitso.by before June 30th, 2018.
